Will Rogers Remarks

NEWTON (Kan.) Jan. 8.

[To the Editor of The Times:] Been passing all day through Kansas, and reading Kansas City papers. They are pretty sore about having the Republicans coming there next June and mangle the town all up.

I guess at the Jackson Day dinner in Washington we will draft some town to hold the Democratic one in. Nobody has applied for it. Naturally I certainly hope Clarence don't draw it. We are just getting on our feet just now.

I am going through Senator Curtis's range now. He will be hard to beat in this roasting-ear belt.

WILL ROGERS.

COSTA RICA CHARMS FLYER

Cordiality of Central American Nation Wins Heart of Col. Lindbergh in Short Stay

BAN JOSE (Costa Rica) Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Today has been enjoyable with hospitality on all sides, and an opportunity to enjoy the attractions of Costa Rica.

This morning, with Mr. Davis, the American Minister, and members of the President's staff I attended a soccer game between teams of Costa Rica and the United States.

The game was fast and in a setting characteristic of the country, with a bright sun, a fresh breeze and a background of mountains.

On the way to the stadium where the game was held we passed the inclosure where my ship is being guarded against possible sabotage.

But I did not inspect it as I am sure it is in good hands.

Following the visit to the game we returned to the Legation, where I had the pleasure of meeting members of the Costa Rican government.

It was a very pleasant surprise to find that the Costa Rican government is so friendly to the United States.

I was very glad to see so many of my fellow countrymen in a spot so distant from home and I am proud of the present they made to me, a writing set of the Costa Rican government.

The Costa Rican government is so friendly to the United States that I am sure it will be a great help to the United States.

IRENE CASTLE BEFRIENDS DOGS

Country Haven for Chicago's Stray Canines Promised For Near Future

CHICAGO, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—A country haven for stray dogs of Chicago is soon to be a reality, Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin, known as a lover of animals, told committee members of the Anti-Cruelty Society, of which she is a director, at a meeting.

The members had previously shuddered when told by John J. Abbott, retiring president of the society, that of 18,000 dogs handled by the society in 1927, more than 17,000 could not be placed in homes and were put to death in the organization's animal refuge.

That is to be changed, Mrs. McLaughlin said. Huge kennels on a farm near Chicago are to be built, where the dogs may be sent and kept until proper homes can be found for them. Friends to whom she has appealed already have promised her more than $20,000 of the sum needed annually to maintain the farm, she said.

NEW RATES OF POSTAGE PROPOSED

National Chamber Drafts Recommendations to Be Submitted to Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Recommendations for the revision of postal rates and the establishment of a rate system "upon a sound and permanent basis" was contained in a report today by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States drawn up for submission to Congress.

The committee's conclusions included findings that the increase in the rate of private mailing cards had driven more than 50 per cent of private post cards out of existence. It also asserted that under the increased rates on advertising matter in newspapers and magazines, "this class of matter which, contrary to a prevalent view, yields substantial profits to the Postoffice Department, has shown a decrease instead of a normal rate of increase corresponding to the growth of the publication business."

In addition, adjustment in the rates of newspapers, magazines and other classes of mail were suggested.

WILLIS ACCUSED IN DOUBLECROSS

Said to Have Violated Pact With Hoover Men Plot to Disrupt Support of Secretary Charged

FORFEITURE OF FIRST-CHOICE VOTES MAY RESULT

BY ROBERT A. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Accused of violating his agreement relating to the "second choice," Ohio delegates to next year's Republican National Convention, Senator Frank B. Willis today apparently had knuckled into a contest but all the efforts of the past few weeks to make the Presidential primary victory of the Buckeye delegates, whether peace will be restored and a scheme yet worked out that will be satisfactory to both the Willis and Hoover factions, remains to be seen, but the prospects at the moment are for a bitter struggle similar to the one in 1920 between Harding and Wood.

The agreement Willis is charged with breaking was that if he was given the "first choice" support of the Buckeye delegates, he would make no effort to control them on second choice. The Hoover people were willing to go along with the deal for it assured them of practically solid backing of the delegation after Willis is out of the convention running.

Today, however, certain of the leaders of the Hoover movement declared that they had come into possession of letters written by Senator Willis which proved conclusively that he is making a very vigorous effort to split up the delegation on "second choice" between a number of candidates.

They say he has written letters to some prospective delegates urging them to place their second choice vote to Davis and others suggesting they give second choice to Lowden and still others recommending this support for other nationally known Republican candidates.

The purpose, it is charged, is to defeat the growing Hoover movement in Ohio and make it as difficult as possible for Hoover to obtain from Ohio the convention strength to which sentiment in the State entitles him.

Willis recognizes Hoover as his greatest rival in Ohio, and sees in the candidacy of the Secretary of Commerce a major reason why Ohio Republicans have not been taking his own Presidential ambitions with any great degree of enthusiasm.

The Hoover leaders may regard the Willis assertion violation as the "worst act" and if they do the indications are they will make an open fight in Ohio for first-choice support, a thing it is conceded, would make the Republican party in the State wide open and result in scores as deep as those caused in the Harding-Wood contest seven years ago.

But the Hoover managers are anxious to avoid such trouble if possible, and the chances are they will be willing to sit in on future conferences that will be called in an attempt to straighten out the tangled state situation.

A number of meetings at which the Ohio Republican primary was the principal subject of discussion have been held here yesterday and today, and at one time last night at the home of Speaker Longworth, Senator Willis was told quite frankly that he could expect no support from the three Cincinnati delegates, not even on the first ballot.

Fred Schneider, chairman of the Republican organization in Hamilton county, said that in view of the "set" sentiment predominating there the delegates from Cincinnati could not consistently vote for Willis at any stage.

Willis is said by others present to have accepted Schneider's statement with good grace, despite the fact it shatters all his hopes for a solid delegation at Kansas City.

The Cincinnati delegates will go to the convention, it is understood, pledged to some local "dummy," possibly William Cooper, Princeton, but their real interest will lie in starting a movement toward Speaker Longworth if, and when, such a movement can get anywhere.

Senator Willis was not in Washington today to answer to the charge of violating his agreement with the Hoover managers; he was reported to be in New York in secret conference with General Thompson of Cleveland, a possible candidate for Governor.

LONGWORTH CONFERENCE
The conference at the Longworth home last night was attended by Longworth, Senators Willis and Fawcett, Walter F. Brown of Toledo, assistant to Secretary Hoover; Congressman Burton and Bagg and Schneider and A. E. Anderson and P. Lincoln Mitchell, Hamilton county members of the Republican State Central Committee.

Ohio Republicans here are waiting with great interest the forthcoming ruling of Secretary of State Clarence Brown on what a candidate must do in Ohio to get delegates. If Brown rules that written permission is necessary it strengthens Willis's position and probably will give him a delegation that will stick to him a long time in the convention.

At the same time it would put Hoover and other candidates who may wish to enter Ohio under the necessity of declaring their candidacies in a public manner which Hoover, for one, is going to avoid.

But if Brown rules that written consent is not necessary, contests will be possible in every district. All the candidates can declare for Willis and the question will be on the degree of their loyalty. In this way candidates friendly to Hoover can run as Willis delegates and switch to their favorite association as they had cast one vote in the convention for Willis.

The ruling is important in any consideration of the Ohio Republican Presidential primary situation.

FIR PROPOSED AS CURTIS'S RUNNING MATE
NEW YORK, Jan. 8. (AP)—The candidacy of Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, for the Republican Vice-Presidential nomination as a running mate for Senator Curtis of Kansas, was announced today by Joseph Steinberg, one of the organizers of the New York Curtis-for-President Club.

CUT FLOOD DANGER FOR LOW AREAS

Bureau of Reclamation Puts Crews to Work Clearing Up Brush

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8. (AP)—Preparing for future high stages in the Sacramento River when the storm waters will pour over the levees in the low areas, the bureau of reclamation, department of public works, now is cleaning the brush and second growth from the lower Butte By-Pass so the flood danger will be reduced to a minimum.

In the past brush and trees have caught drift and other debris and not only slowed up the flow as it passed into the Yolo By-Pass, but in some instances caused it to back up and flood low lands.

A force of thirty men under the direction of Robert Jones, bureau chief, is clearing the by-pass leading from the Freeport War in Butte county.

The bureau during recent weeks also has cleared all drainage ditches at a cost of $20,000, and more re- cleared the Tiedale By-Pass midway between Knights Landing and Colusa so that the water from the Butte By-Pass, may move freely.

Jones also announced construction of a new pump station at Chandler is progressing rapidly, as to installation of a new and larger pump for the de-watering of the Butte county lands in that area. The pump is necessary to lift the draining into the river, the by-pass levee having cut off the natural drains.

Battleships Sail for Maneuvers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—The battleships Wyoming, flagship of the scouting fleet, the Utah and the Florida, with four light cruisers and twenty-seven destroyers and several vessels of the training squadron, sailed from Hampton Roads yesterday for maneuvers in southern waters.

The light cruisers Trenton, Memphis, Raleigh and Milwaukee, sailed with the fleet. Three of these cruisers, the Trenton, Raleigh and Milwaukee, will put into Charleston, S. C., tomorrow to take aboard 350 marines and ten officers of the Marine Corps for transportation to Nicaragua.

The Memphis will proceed with the fleet and put in at Key West to join the Presidential convey to Havana the last of this week.

COL. ROOSEVELT MADE HEAD OF FOREST WEEK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Col. Theodore Roosevelt of New York has been elected chairman of the American forest week committee to succeed former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, who asked to be relieved after three years' service. The 1928 forestry week has been set for April 23-25.

DEAD MAN MAY PROVE ANGELENO

Bay City Officers Still Unable to Solve Mystery of Body Found Mangled

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—While San Mateo county authorities sought vainly to solve the mystery surrounding death of a young man whose body was found on the Southern Pacific right-of-way near Bay Shore Station Saturday night, scores of people today sought to identify the youth.

Herbert A. Walker of Los Angeles partially identified the body as that of his brother-in-law, O. G. Vedder, who disappeared from Los Angeles on Christmas Day. He was not certain of the identification, however, and wired to Los Angeles for further information.

Officers investigating the case said they believe it is the young man, who was mangled and the body placed on the railroad tracks. A train had mangled the body before it was discovered by John Simpson, freight train conductor.

The dead man was described by Coroner McCrory as about five feet, four inches in height, weighing 170 pounds, of dark complexion and with dark brown hair. He wore a grey striped suit and brown and grey mixed tweed overcoat, grey cap and tan shoes, size seven.

TULSA (Okla.) Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—A 14-year-old Tulsa girl is the principal beneficiary of the estate of more than $1,000,000 left by Robert Oglesby, former Tulsa oil man and New York clubman, who died here suddenly last Sunday morning.

Oglesby's will, making additional bequests of $25,000 to three other relatives and a friend here, was filed for probate yesterday.

The child named in the will is Katherine Cornell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman D. Cornell of Tulsa. Mrs. Cornell, a niece of Oglesby, is reported to be about 40 years of age, $50,000. Mrs. Olive O. Snyder, a sister of Oglesby, is valued $200,000.

Will provides that Mrs. Cornell's portion of the estate is to be held in trust until she is 30 years of age. According to conservative estimates, the value of her part of the estate sixteen years hence should be more than $1,000,000, assuming a fair interest rate for that period.

Charge Made Rum Smugglers Have Dry Help

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—A charge of collusion between members of the New York prohibition unit and bootleggers was made today by Representative Laguardia, Republican, New York, in a letter asking Secretary Mellon if he is in a position to reveal what action has been taken against the "high-grade liquor" syndicate, which the Representative recently attacked on the House floor.

The business of the syndicate was smuggling in "choice vintage," he said.

POLICEMAN SHOOT HOLD-UP SUSPECT

BALTIMORE, Jan. 8. (AP)—Believing himself to be the victim of a hold-up man, William Wilkins, 31 years of age, a special policeman, shot and fatally wounded Emil Weiland, 37, railroad brakeman, early today. Wilkins was held on a technical charge of murder.

Seven-State Pact

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—The House Irrigation Committee, when it resumes hearings on the new Swing-Johnson Boulder Canyon Dam bill tomorrow, will have before it four reports from as many advisers named last April by Secretary Work to consider the project from every angle. Senator Waterman of Colorado, a fifth adviser, has not yet reported.

The advisers, including James R. Garfield, former Secretary of the Interior, Gov. Emerson of Wyoming, and Prof. William F. Durand of Stanford University, reported individually on questions asked by the Interior Secretary as to the feasibility of the project and whether the government could and should proceed without unanimous approval of the Colorado River basin states.

Understand of the project is contained in the Garfield report, which also urges its immediate construction, primarily because of flood menace to the Imperial Valley. It holds that the Federal government has the right to proceed.

The Scruggs report, while urging immediate action, deals largely with the power to be developed and suggests a plan for allotment of power which he believes would be approved by Arizona, Nevada and private power interests.

While recognizing the need for flood protection, Gov. Emerson insists that the Colorado River compact should be ratified by all seven states before the proposed legislation is enacted.

Engineering features stand out in the Durand report, which emphasizes the flood danger and declares that the

Miss Boyden Hints She Will Quit Habit When Churches
Ban It for Men, Too

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Jan. 8. (AP)—Miss A. Maude Boyden, English lecturer, today appeared a quip in regard to cigarette smoking by Rochester women's organizations sponsoring her lecture engagement here.

"Until the church bans smoking entirely among its male members, it is not in a very strong position to dictate what its women members should do about it," Miss Boyden replied.

The reports are expected to be placed in the records of the Irrigation Committee, which already has the endorsement of Secretary Work of the new Swing-Johnson bill.

Duties of it will be to have charge of vigilance along street car lines and public highways and in addition is to provide inducements by improvement measures for extending American tourist influx into the country.

COMMITTEES IN CONGRESS BUSY

Leaders Anxious to Clean Up
Appropriation Bills

Hearst and Smith Cases Due for Reports This Week

Illinoisan Expected to Be Denied Senate Seat

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—The Congressional machine, which so far this session has been pulled along by the power of the House, is about to receive impetus from both sides, for the Senate is getting more legislative fuel on which to travel.

The House this week will pass on to the Senate the appropriation bill for the State, Justice, Commerce and Labor departments and also that for the Interior Department. These will be given priority in the Senate as leaders there plan to clean up the appropriation bills as rapidly as possible.

Meantime, however, the Senate will receive reports from two of its special committees, those inquiring into the authenticity of the Hearst-McLean documents and the case of Senator Smith of Illinois, who has been denied the oath of office by the Senate because of expenditures in his primary election campaign.

TENOR OF REPORT
The Medical committee will report that the documents published in the Hearst newspapers are forgeries and that there is no evidence to substantiate charges that four United States Senators received any funds whatsoever from the Mexican government.

The special Campaign Funds Committee, of which Senator Reed of Missouri is chairman, will recite the removal of Smith to submit himself to the jurisdiction of that committee until he has been given the oath of office. It is expected that this matter will be disposed of before the end of the week with the Senate finally declaring the seat vacant.

The only immediate matter on the Senate calendar is the resolution of Senator McFarland, Republican, South Dakota, to put the Senate on record in favor of a general downward revision of the tariff rates. While administration leaders will oppose it, the necessary votes for its adoption are in sight through a combination of Democrats and Republican irregulars.

APPROPRIATION BILLS

Having adopted and sent to the Senate the joint resolution authorizing the President to appoint a special commission to investigate the S-4 disaster, the House tomorrow will turn its attention again to the four departmental appropriation bills from a view to a vote late in the day.

On Wednesday the Appropriations Committee is expected to report the Interior Department supply bill and that will be taken up Thursday with leaders hoping for a final vote before the end of the week. Today will be given over to the private-consent calendar.

House committees during the week will continue hearings on the Boulder Canyon dam, flood control, and the case of Senator Reed of Missouri. The Military Committee expects to take up Muscle Shoals Tuesday and an Election Committee will consider the case of James M. Beale of Pennsylvania, whose right to a House seat is challenged on the ground that he was not a legal resident of that state at the time of his election.

The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee will again take up the road-consolidation legislation tomorrow and on Tuesday the Irrigation Committee will consider the bill on the Columbia River Basin project.

Britain Keeps
Pledge to Irish of Free Hand

DUBLIN, Jan. 8. (AP)—Strong testimony of the noninterference by the British government into free State affairs was given by retiring Gov.-Gen. Esley at a banquet in his honor Saturday night at which President Cosgrave presided.

"The English government, in my few years in office, has never interfered—I pledge my faith and honor to this—to the extent of a title or a scintilla in any Irish matter," said the Governor-General.

"The British government has left the Ministry absolutely free; left them, in fact, uncoached and unadvised, and that tribute should not be left unpaid. I have heard much talk about 'our foreign King,' but there is one thing about this 'foreign King'—he is a gentleman, and we know his pedigree. I wish we knew as much about those who talk about his 'interference' in Irish affairs."

ARGENTINE TRADE AT

CONSUL IN BAY CITY POINTS
COMMERCIAL OPPORTUNITY
OPEN TO COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Development of direct trade between the Pacific Coast and the east coast of South America is the purpose of a visit by Edwin J. Waserman, Consul of Argentina at Seattle, who now is here. His mission primarily, he explained, is to interest Pacific Coast bankers in financing the trade, most of which is handled at the present time by New York and Boston financiers.

"Some of this paper," he said, "is redoubtable in England. Pacific Coast bankers could now take this profit if so minded and at the same time assist shippers.

"Because most Argentine timber is inaccessibly we find it cheaper to import lumber from the United States and Europe. Much of it used to come from the Southern States, but the timber there is disappearing.

"In 1925 25,000,000 board feet of Pacific Coast lumber was shipped to Argentina; in 1926 there were 31,000,000 feet and in 1927 76,000,000 feet. Northwest pine and California redwood are used in great quantities.

"Argentines enjoy eating so-called California apples grown in Washington and shipped to New York. If we had a direct refrigerator line Argentina and the Pacific Coast could exchange shipments of perishables because the harvest seasons of the two are at opposite times of the year."

The change was made, it was said, to meet train schedules. The President will arrive in Miami late in the afternoon of the 14th inst., and in Jacksonville on the 15th or 16th inst.

CALLES MAY

SHIP CREWS

Considers Plan for Freight and Passenger Vessels to Checkmate Marine Unions

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Militarization of crews of Mexican passenger and freight ships is the project now under advisement of President Calles, with the purpose of maintaining strict discipline, more effective service and avoiding interference from various marine unions in ports, which have on numerous occasions when their demands were not met forbidden vessels to sail.

Various marine and navigation authorities have been questioned about the militarization of crews and have expressed the belief, it is the best possible means of avoiding further complications. Because, they say, the sailors' union in Progress, Atlantic port, asked the removal of an inspector aboard the steamer Cohula, of the National Line, trouble and delay was encountered which meant a loss of 40,000 pesos to the line.

Under the new project, the government may commandeer vessels for transportation of troops, which will be more readily accomplished if the crews are militarized with good training and rigid discipline. Moreover, the overhead will be greatly diminished, allowing the lines to effect greater savings, it is said. The lines would still be under direct management of the National Lines of Navigation officials, even if the crews are military.

Bolivia Fin King
Specifies State
Loan Conditions

LA PAZ (Bolivia) Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Simon Patino, Bolivian multimillionaire tin king, has informed the government by cable from Paris, where he lives, that he is prepared to subscribe to the loan recently decreed by President Siles provided he is allowed to have a representative on the committee to be appointed to see that the funds are spent for national defense. This condition may make his contribution unfeasible, as the money is wanted to cover a treasury deficit caused by defense outlay already effected. Some Bolivian millionaires, already have expressed their willingness to contribute without restrictions.

The Banco Mercantil, which is owned by Don Patino, a week ago refused to comply with a supreme decree requiring a forced government loan of $4,176,000, guaranteed by various Bolivian millionaires. Don Patino's share had been set at $1,262,000. The government detailed police forces to compel the bank to turn over the funds.

The object of the loan, according to the decree, was to attend to urgent state obligations, particularly national defense.

What Caused the ASSASSINATION OF "KING" PRICE

For many seasons "King" "High Price" ruled the Southern California tailoring field. He seemed to thrive on the "old order of things"; namely—"purchasing woollens from a jobber" in "single suit lengths"; "farming" out work to a "cut-make-and-trim" house; and selling on a small volume scale. But along came Dan Parker and reversed the whole order—and toppled "King" "High Price" from his throne. Firstly, Dan Parker located in a spacious upstairs store—serving immensely on rent. Secondly, Dan Parker arranged to buy direct from the mill on a large scale—thereby eliminating the middle broker's and local jobber's profit. Thirdly, Dan Parker equipped a very large shop—so that every garment he sold could be made under his own direction—thereby eliminating the "cut-make-and-trim" man's profit. And Dan Parker elected to sell on a BIG VOLUME SCALE—to make the public a virtual "partner" in his enterprise. Parker had big resources, and all he needed was, extensive co-operation on the part of the buyers. He realized that—"many hands make light work." That many purchasers, instead of a few, make possible a light overhead and profit. Consequently, he made an alluring 2 FOR 1 OFFER, so the public would join hands with him to force prices down. Parker knew that a tremendous volume would cut the usual overhead and profit fee to but 1/4 or 1/5, on the original suit. That the second suit would require NO overhead or profit. That there would be a saving in cutting and making 2 suits to the same measurements. That he could charge a certain amount to advertising. And it is needless to say the public has aligned itself with Dan Parker WHOLE-HEARTEDLY, with the attendant result: "King" "High Price" was literally "assassinated"—and the clothes-buying public benefited. Step into Parker's store "TOMORROW" and "you'll see a buy" that will "open your eye."

WOULD GUARD WATERSHEDS

Keep Tourists Out of Mountains, Says Easterner

Former Head of Armour Company Sees Danger

Spend Money for Trees, Says Chicago Man

PASADENA, Jan. 8.—Southern California should protect its watersheds and mountain forest areas even to the extent of keeping tourists and pleasure-seekers out of the mountains, in the opinion of George E. Marcy, former head of the Armour Company of Chicago, who is spending the winter at the Hotel Huntington here, as is his usual custom.

"The present policy of Southern California of opening large numbers of new roads through the mountains is distinctly inimical to the safety of the region's future water supply," declared Mr. Marcy.

"While certain mountain areas might be set aside as playgrounds, the widespread practice of opening up many roads is a menace to the watersheds. The hazards of destructive fires will be increased because the roads encourage more people to go into the mountains."

"In the opinion of one who is deeply interested in Southern California, the money being spent on mountain roads for tourists could be better expended on reforestation, to replace the portions of the watershed which have been destroyed by fire."

"This section needs all the water it can conserve, and care must be taken lest the next generation pay for neglect now."

Flood Work Out of Tax Is Urged

VAN NUTZ, Jan. 8.—Chief Engineer E. C. Eaton of the Los Angeles county flood-control department, today stated he is studying a plan for remedying San Fernando Valley storm-water conditions without the need of floating further bond issues.

The plan provides for the retreating of banks along the valley storm-water and making other flood prevention provisions within the valley proper, from current tax funds of the flood-control department.

WAKE UP SLEEPING CASE

Supreme Court Finds That Noted Race Horse of Thirty Years Ago Was Worth $14,500

SANTA ANA, Jan. 8.—A lawsuit heard more than thirty years ago by a San Francisco judge, has just been decided after sleeping for more than a quarter-century in the archives of the California Supreme Court.

In the latest ahead of Supreme Court decisions, just received in Santa Ana court records, was found today the strange story of "Marengo," a once proud and rambling race horse, probably the most noted thoroughbred in legal annals of the State.

For Marengo, dead these thirty-one years, has just been declared worth $14,500 by the Supreme Court in a San Francisco decision.

A suit for $20,000 was filed in San Francisco in 1898 by Marengo's owner, William M. Slinger, against Frank Van Nuts, who, it was said, held wrongful possession of the race horse. The horse, the plaintiffs and their lawyers are all dead. But, when the Supreme Court some time ago started house-cleaning and found the forgotten case in one of its dusty pigeonholes, a new set of litigants and lawyers were recruited to complete the battle.

The Supreme Court in its decision, modifying the $18,000 verdict to $14,500. Estates of the deceased litigant, as a matter of course, are the only interests concerned in the decision.

Singer, owner of Marengo, brought the case to the attention of the court in 1898. The case started dragging immediately and it was not until 1900 that the $18,000 verdict was rendered. Marengo died in the year the suit was filed, 1894. A new trial was ordered, and the case was remanded to the lower court.

In 1923, a new generation of Supreme Court justices were of that forty bench. They came upon the forgotten case of Marengo, and a decision recited, by ordering that something be done about the pending appeal, or it would be dismissed. The pending case was argued by a new set of attorneys, and the case was remanded to the lower court.

It is recalled how fast a horse Marengo was in his heyday, but local legal lights were today offering evidence that he could best the California colts by several lengths.

Large Party to Go to Honolulu

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—A delegation of approximately 200 will represent this city at the annual meeting of the Western Division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States at Honolulu February 7, 8 and 9.

Announcement of the size of the delegation came as an answer to the reminder of Frederick J. Koster, former president of the local chamber, that "San Franciscans should recognize the importance to Pacific trade of the coming meeting. Questions vital to the entire State and the entire Pacific Coast, as well as the nations bordering upon the Pacific will be discussed. Our business with the Hawaiian group amounts now to more than $53,000,000 annually and it will grow if attended to."

TRACK LIONS IN HILLS

ONE OUT OF TEN IN JAIL

Number of Arrests in Orange County Shocking Until Thoroughly Analyzed

SANTA ANA, Jan. 8.—The statement that nearly a tenth of Orange county's population has been in jail sometime during the last five years is one well calculated to excite astonishment.

Yet, the records of Sheriff Sam Jernigan covering the five-year period that he has been in office, show that 6440 prisoners have been booked at the County Jail during that time. That number equals approximately 8 per cent of the county's population.

Of course, many of those 6440 came from outside of the county for accommodations at the Jernigan hotel, and many more may be counted as repeaters, having been jailed for more than once. But the actual proportion of the population that has been in jail is a conservative estimate, as the sheriff's office has no record of prisoners released, as observers, that law enforcement is the daily occupation of Orange county peace officers.

The sheriff's force, of course, has been increased since the five-year period that he has been in office, and many more may be counted as repeaters, having been jailed for more than once. FRUIT EXCHANGE BREAKS RECORD

Redlands - Highland - Makes Report

More Tonnage and Than Ever Before

Assessment for Abatement to Be Higher

REDLANDS, Jan. 8.—The fruit exchange here broke a record for tonnage and value of fruit shipped during the last five years, according to a report made by the exchange.

The exchange reported that the tonnage of fruit shipped during the last five years was more than $1,500,000, and that the value of the fruit was more than $1,500,000.

Bee Men Plan Bay City Meet

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (Radioactive)—The men who know why busy bees keep busy and (who would make them busier) will meet here for a three-day convention the 29th inst. They include the members of the American Honey Producers' League, and delegates will come from the entire United States, according to Cary Hartman, Oakland apiarist in charge of arrangements.

Hartman contends that if every man, woman and child in California could eat a teaspoonful of honey a day there would be no need to export the honey produced within

Nearly $1,000,000 worth of men's second-hand suits, sweaters and wool goods were sent from Great Britain and the United States and sold in India within the past year.

STAR GAZER TO INVADE DESERT

Smithsonian Scientist Will Take Post in Chile

H. H. Zoltner Relieves Man on Mt. Montezuma

Observatory in One of Most Desolate Regions

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—H. H. Zoltner, of the Smithsonian Institution, is leaving the United States to spend three years beyond the nitrate deserts near the Chilean Andes measuring the sun's radiation. He is accompanied by his wife. He will relieve R. B. Freeman, the present director of the Smithsonian observatory at Mt. Montezuma, near Calama, Chile, who has completed three years in the lonely work. Mr. Zoltner's new position means a transfer from the pleasant Collier-Blairstown to one of the most desolate regions on earth, where not even a blade of grass can be seen. Since August, 1928, he has been assisting at the Smithsonian observatory on Table Mountain, Southern California.

From the point of view of living conditions, this is the most agreeable of the three observatories operated by the Smithsonian in widely separated regions of the world. The third and most recent, which is operated by the National Geographic Society, is on Mt. Brukkaros in the Namaland reservation of South-west Africa.

The work of the observatories demands clear skies so that they have to be placed on mountains. They measure the heat radiated by the sun as it strikes the outside edge of the earth's atmosphere. The Smithsonian has discovered a variation in this radiation and there is growing proof of a close relationship between solar variations and the earth's weather.

Since this further investigation will lead to much positive results, the discovery of this relationship is one of the main incentives which lead the Smithsonian astrophysicists to endure the isolation of desert mountains for three years at a stretch.

"Every winter I used to get sore throat," says Zoltner. "My family doctor said, 'Excellent! contains an effective, safe antiseptic.' Now there's always the little metal pocket case filled with Formamint, in my handbag."

Formamint cannot take the physician's place. For bad sore throat see him at once. But, at the first sign of raspiness, begin with Formamint. Unlike gargles, it can be used anywhere. Incubated places, too. It continuously releases its germ-killing agent.

To treat sore throat, one tablet every hour; as a preventive, one every two hours. All druggists.

MEXICO BUILDS MORE ARTERIES

Road Construction Program Will Be Continued

Great Highway to Border Next Undertaking

Capital Will Be Linked to United States

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Mexico's intensive road-building program, which was marked by the opening of the modern highway between Mexico City and the Pacific Coast port of Acapulco late in 1933, will be continued with construction of the Mexico City-Laredo Highway, which will ultimately connect this capital with the United States border at the latter city.

The Commission of National Highways, the state highway authority, has appropriated 4,000,000 pesos (about $2,200,000) for work on the highway to the American border. This money will be spent partly in the improvement, widening and grading of the 200-kilometer road between Mexico City and Laredo, and partly in the construction of a new 100-kilometer road from Laredo to the United States border.

Included in the nation-wide network of highways planned by the Mexican government will be the completion of the Mexico City-Vera Cruz Road, which will give the high central plateau direct communication with the Atlantic seaboard. A section of this route, from Mexico City to Puebla, State of Puebla, was opened recently, while the Highway Commission has indicated it intends to spend a large sum of money during 1934 to hasten this project to completion.

With these three major highways completed, Mexico City, located far in the interior, will have modern highway communication with both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts as well as the American border.

America Aiding White Russians

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—An announcement that the American Red Cross was calling $50,000 to the High Commission on Refugees of the League of Nations at Geneva to help in the transportation of some 2,000 white Russians from Turkey to Argentina, Cyprus and Corsica, was made today by Dr. Joseph P. Stiles, canon of Washington Cathedral.

Dr. Stiles represents the High Commission in this country in an effort to raise $100,000 as the American contribution to a fund of $200,000 being raised by the League to meet what he said the League had described as "the most precious among all refugee situations in Europe." All but $10,000 of the American goal has been raised, he said.

MEXICAN EXPORTS GO MOSTLY TO ST. LOUIS

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—St. Louis is the chief receiver of Mexican exports to the United States, it has been learned by the Secretary of Industry, Commerce and Labor who has been studying intensively Mexican importations by the United States with the view of increasing them. St. Louis receives 15.5 per cent of the shipments to the United States; Laredo, Tex., receives 23.6 per cent; New York gets 9.2 per cent; Los Angeles receives 8.1 per cent; while San Francisco gets only 0.9 per cent. The remainder is distributed generally.

Demand Books on California

San Francisco, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Books, magazines and literature of all kinds bearing on California are in great demand throughout the East, it was admitted here by Frank P. Hill, chief librarian of the Brooklyn Public Library.

"We are always in search of authentic California data," he said, "because there is such a great demand for it. California is rich in material. The State Library in Sacramento and the San Francisco and Los Angeles public libraries are Mecca for your students."

BRITISH COLUMBIA RUM PROFITS LARGE

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Including $1,804,788 profits made during the last six months, government control of liquor sales in British Columbia has resulted in total profits of $18,420,833 since the system was inaugurated in 1921. The money is distributed every six months to municipalities for public improvements, to another portion, hospitals and a reserve liquor fund.

Limit Jobs of State Senators

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8. (AP)—State Senators are precluded by statute from "holding or accepting any other office, trust or employment" with the State, whether remunerative or otherwise, during the term for which they are elected. This in brief is the gist of an opinion handed J. W. Stevens, State fire marshal, by Attorney U. S. Webb. Stevens proposed to appoint Senators as deputy fire marshals to serve without pay.

SAN MATEO HUNTER SHOT BY ACCIDENT

SANTA ROSA, Jan. 8. (AP)—C. Wiesbart of San Mateo accidentally was shot and killed today while hunting ducks from a motorboat on the marshes near Schellville. Companions said Wiesbart was shot by a shot gun toward him and received the full charge of shot. Wiesbart was accompanied by John Reynolds of San Mateo and Tony Marucci and Jack Meyers of Schellville.

ENGLISH RECTOR BEAUTIFIES CHURCH WITH HIS WOOD WORK

ICKFORD (Eng.) Jan. 8. (AP)—The interior of the village church of Ickford is considered one of the most beautiful of small churches in England, partly through the wood-working skill of the rector himself, Rev. Vernon Staley.

Rev. Staley, who is 70 years of age, spends his spare time in improving the interior of the church with beautiful ornamental furnishings in wood and fabric.

Two Men Die in New Year Escape Attempt Tested

LONDON (O.) Jan. 8. (AP)—An arrested attempt to escape from a labor camp today led to the death of two of the prisoners and the probable fatal injury of the officer. The third prisoner was held and will be charged with manslaughter, if the officers' injuries prove fatal.

The dead are Earl O'Brien and William Baker, both of this city. Marshall, Sheridan Beathard suffered a fractured skull and severe body injuries.

Beathard arrested O'Brien, Baker and William Peasey on a charge of attempted escape and was driving them to jail in the city police automobile when it crashed into a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train, killing O'Brien and Baker, seriously injuring Beathard and slightly injuring Peasey. Witnesses reported that Beathard, who retained consciousness after the crash, said that one of his prisoners struck him over the head as he was driving, causing him to lose control of the car.

FRENCH DIG UP ANCIENT CITY

Find Throw New Light on Hittite King

Town Found in Upper Valley of Euphrates

Discovery Promises History of Abraham's Time

PARIS, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—The French Commission of Antiquities in Syria has just been made aware by the learned Academy of Inscriptions in French that a quite forgotten Hittite town, which must have been the home of the famous Hittite King, has been discovered at Ur of the Chaldees, where Abraham was born.

The ruins of the newly discovered town are in so many hieroglyphic of the Hittite language that the French Commission of Antiquities in Syria has just been made aware by the learned Academy of Inscriptions in French that a quite forgotten Hittite town, which must have been the home of the famous Hittite King, has been discovered at Ur of the Chaldees, where Abraham was born.

ESSEX SUPER SIX

New Bodies—Larger and Roomier—
New Appearance from Radiator to Tail Light
Finer Fittings—Four Wheel Brakes—
High Compression—Long Life Motor &
An Amazing Price

One look at the new Essex Super-Six will convince you that it will excel in popularity the Essex which has just completed the most successful year ever achieved by a six-cylinder car.

From radiator to tail light it is a smarter, more beautiful car than even the Essex which preceded it. And in performance it surpasses in smoothness, reliability, speed and ease of handling, the standard Essex owners are so proud to acclaim.

You get an impression of completeness and fine quality in the design of every detail. From the new pattern Colonial lights—the higher, narrower radiator with vertical shutters—the heavy sweeping fenders—the rubber-covered running boards—the new improved steering mechanism and the steering wheel similar in design and construction to that now used on the very latest and very highest priced cars—there is outstanding reason for pride.

The bodies are not only new and roomier but are so designed as to give a lasting, solid, rigid service. The roof is flatter—the car is bigger in fact and in appearance. Door fittings, hinges and locks are impressively substantial and lastingly beautiful.

The upholstery is not only durable but is also rich to eye and touch. The seats are form fitting—the backs high and comfortable, the leg room for driver and passengers is generous.

But rich and inspiring as is the appearance of this new Essex, still Essex surpasses itself in performance.

Its universally acknowledged supremacy in get-away and its ability to travel at top speed all day long reaches a new limit.

The get-away is perceptibly faster. You will find at the end of a day's run that you have covered more miles than was possible before.

Essex steering, long famous for its ease, is smoother than you will find in most cars, regardless of their cost.

The Bendix four-wheel brakes give smooth and attention-free control of your car at speeds over every road condition.

No car near its price uses such large 35x5 inches. They may be driven with less pressure and, of course, add hundreds of miles to tire life.

You can't help feeling that in the new Essex quality and finest detail are outstanding. It impresses you as being much more than a mere transportation vehicle; for in the character of its lines, the smoothness of every detail, the richness of its bodywork, the softness of its seats, the feel of its upholstery, as well as its performance, there is everything cause for your admiration.

The world's largest sale of six-cylinder cars became an Essex achievement solely because of merit. The car we now invite you to see is so outstandingly superior to anything you have imagined that you must expect it to demand a higher price.

But with all these advantages, there is also an amazing price reduction. The Essex of 1934, a. b. Detroit is $40 below the Essex of last year.

Buyers can pay for cars out of income at lowest available charge for interest, handling and delivery.

CHEERFUL CHAFF

BY TIMBS READERS

WRITE FOR THE "MOVIES" AND WIN CASH PRIZES
The Los Angeles Times publishes a popular feature called "Cheerful Chaff." It is a collection of the best jokes submitted weekly by readers. To be eligible for prizes, jokes must be original, clean, and suitable for publication. No formal letter is necessary. Just let down your ideas, as many as you wish, along with your name and address and mail to "Cheerful Chaff Editor," Los Angeles Times. Jokes for the contest must not exceed 50 words.

Winning jokes too long or otherwise not adapted for screen use, are awarded a place of honor on the Times comic page, receiving a souvenir of acknowledgment.

Editor: I am paid for what I know, not what I do.

Fannie: Don't you get any salary at all?

Mrs. E. A. Betts, 503 South Painter, Whittier, Cal.

She: You're the first man who ever kissed me!

He: I believe you, dear.

She: Oh you're the first one who would believe it too.

Miss E. Scherer, Pittenger Sanatorium, Monrovia, Cal.

"Did that patent medicine you bought cure your sunt?"

"Nerdy. Not on reading the circular around the bottle she got two more diseases."

Miss Marie Johnson, 1375 Alhambra street, Pasadena, Cal.

Teacher: What was the Tower of Babel?

Pop: Wasn't that where Solomon kept his 5000 wives?

M. Beatrice O'Brien, 127 South Normandie.

Teacher: When it is very cold, sometimes I turn on the faucet and no water flows, why is that?

Johnny: Because you haven't paid your water bill.

Allice C. Ward, 1131 Santee street.

"Ding of a operation, did ya?"

"Ay, and 'e could 'ave died without it, so they tell me."

Fred H. Moore, 3150 Glenmar street, Los Angeles, Cal.

GANG WAY!

"Who was the man to the fence, you or the bull?"

"It was a two-up."

Harry E. Hays, 323 Locust, Turlock, Cal.

The reporter wrote: Bridget Murphy, the lawful wife of the prisoner, was the next witness. In printing the report, she was omitted by mistake. Mrs. Murphy assaulted the editor.

John M. York, Jr., 1823 Virginia Road, Los Angeles.

"Send the doctor, quick."

"Who's sick at your house?"

"Everybody. I got 'em. I've been naughty so they wouldn't give me any of the nice mushrooms papa picked in the woods."

Lottie Knight, 716 North Doto street, Los Angeles, Cal.

MAC SMITH CAPTURES $10,000 OPEN WITH 284

MAC SMITH STEPS OUT IN FRONT

Here is shown MacDonald Smith of Long Island, N. Y., whose card of 284 for seventy-two holes, gave him the victory yesterday in the third annual Los Angeles $10,000 open golf championship. Wilshire Country Club, the scene of his conquest furnishes the background for this interesting golfing figure.

HARRY COOPER IS SECOND, THREE STROKES BEHIND

Victor Blazes Way to Honors With Sensational Rounds of 69 and 71; Abe Espinosa Third

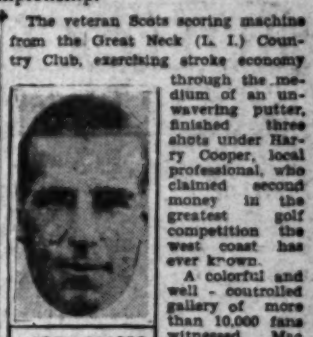

BY BILL WISE

The latest and best Scotch story in this vicinity was provided by MacDonald Smith at Wilshire yesterday as he stroked the immaculate close-in layout for a 69 and a 71 to mark up a seventy-two-hole aggregate of 284 and annex the Los Angeles $10,000 open golf championship.

Spiffy Duds Brighten Up Tournament

BY JANE FREDERICKSON

Motion picture stars, bank presidents, society women, doctors, lawyers, judges, caddies, men and women from nearly all walks of life made up a gallery that was as interesting as the golf players themselves.

HARRY COOPER

The veteran Scots scoring machine from the Great Neck (L. I.) Country Club, exercising stroke economy through the medium of an unwavering putter, finished three strokes under Harry Cooper, local professional, who claimed second money in the greatest golf competition the west coast has ever known.

San Mateo Poloists Turn on Midwick Country Club Riders for a 10-to-7 Victory

Invading Team Captures Second Contest of Year

Perkins' Squad Shows Reversal of Form in Defeating Local Mallet Stars in Fast Game

BY FRANK ROCHIE
Arthur Perkins and his San Mateo horsemen are evidently believers in the old saying, "Turn about is fair play," judging from their performance yesterday at the Midwick Country Club. Last Friday Perkins' riders took a neat thumping over the local mallet team in the opening game of the Pacific Coast polo season. Yesterday the San Mateo players gave the local riders a 10-to-7 score before the largest crowd of fans that had turned out here for an early season contest.

The goal post. Tervis then snatched through the Midwick team while the excitement was at its height and rode the ball down the field for a goal. The riders rode all over the place after Tervis had scored and during the mid-up a Midwick rider fouled a San Mateo player by crossing. Tervis was given a free shot at the Midwick goal which he made. The Midwick riders were given a free shot on a foul a few seconds later, but Roach missed his try at it. He made up for it on the knock in, however, by ringing up a tally for Midwick as the period ended.

HECTIC RIDING
The fourth period was a hectic affair. Both teams rode as fast as a ninety-mile gale. Crocker made two tallies for San Mateo on passes from Perkins and Tervis. Hal Roach, Midwick's left-handed star, made one goal. The fifth period was a fast one and jammed with action. Hal Roach and Roach's ride like demons, Roach made a perfect follow of Roach's shot, for a goal for Midwick.

The sixth period was scoreless due to good defensive work by both teams. In the seventh, Tervis made a goal and Roach another for the local club. The eighth period was a fast one and jammed with action. Hal Roach and Roach's ride like demons, Roach made a perfect follow of Roach's shot, for a goal for Midwick.

ARJUNA TROOP SOUPSTERS
Harry Hahn's Arjuna troop handed the Midwick team their first defeat of the season yesterday when they won a 10-to-7 victory. The Arjuna team, which was led by Harry Hahn, defeated the Midwick team in a fast and exciting game. The Arjuna team's victory was a significant one for the season.

RUETHER TURNS DOWN SEAL BID
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8. (Exclusive)—Efforts of the San Francisco Seals to secure the services of Walter (Dutch) Ruether were balked today, temporarily at least, when the big left-hander spurned a $5000 bonus proffered him by the local club and packed his duds for an extended hunting trip in Humboldt county.

BAKER AND LONG READY FOR FIGHT
Sluggers Will Hook Up Tomorrow Evening at the Olympic
Charlie Long will meet a different kind of fighter Tuesday night at the Olympic in Sammy Baker than he did with Bert Collins. Collins is clean and fast—but he can't stand pain. Baker doesn't appear to have a nerve in his stoical body.

OBSERVATIONS
BY THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER
BILL HENRY
JUST in case there should be some doubt regarding Southern California's place as a winter playground, we recommend this week-end as a fine example. As far as that goes, the week-end just completed wasn't such a bad one either. But coming up we have the outdoor motor race around Catalina Island, which certainly ought to be a wild and woolly affair, a dual match race at Ascot speedway between Ralph De Palma and George Souders, the opening game of the Coast Conference basketball season between Southern California and California, the Long Beach golf championship with Tommy Armour, et al., on the job, more polo at Midwick, another professional football game at Wrighly Field and plenty of similar events for those who like sport. Yep, this is a tough place to live.

Two Marksmen Tie for Prize in Trapshoot
A dandy crowd was in attendance at the Los Angeles Gun Club yesterday.
B. B. Clarke and Lou Reed shooting in grand form, led the bunch with 28100 each. That good shooter, H. E. Sargent, was right at their heels with 26 out of the century. O. L. Becker of Orem, Utah; Mrs. Gus Knight, H. W. Armstrong, A. J. Staurber, Fred Grewell and E. Gillespie had a ding-dong race for third honors.

nothing that was worth while, though it was the winning a three-day drive with many players that one wanted to see.

Sauer, London Set for Clash
The first bout between Jim London and Pete Sauer held here about a month ago, and which practically ended when the Greek butted the local heavyweight through the ropes, will have a same one in comparison to the battle these two are expected to wage on the mat when they clash in the feature event of Lou Dero's wrestling show at the Olympic Wednesday night.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

With a bridge luncheon at her home in Virginia Road, Mrs. Catherine McCully announced February 4 as the date for her marriage to Franklin Le Roy Hastings.

Mrs. McCully is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant McCully, who was graduated from the Los Angeles High School and attended University of Southern California for three years, where she was an active member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority.

Mr. Hastings is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lockhart of Third Avenue, and received his schooling at Shattuck Military Academy and later at Stanford University, where he is affiliated with Sigma Chi.

The secret of the wedding day was revealed by cards bearing in ornate bouquets of violets and Celine Brunner roses. Mrs. McCully was assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. E. Adams, and Mrs. Charles McCully. The guests included Mrs. Ethel Burns, Mrs. Frederick Williams, Mrs. George (Mrs. Traft) Somers, Mrs. Quince Jones (Shirley Craig), Mrs. Douglas Mueller (Margaret Barnard), Mrs. Frank Payne (Lola Jean Hale), Mrs. John Robert White (Betty Peil), Mrs. Floyd Tuttle (June Taylor), Mrs. Edwin Munroe (Hope McNeill), Mrs. Charles Hartwell (Winifred Pink), Mrs. Marvin Kellogg (Elizabeth Lippincott), Mrs. Kenneth Campbell (Katie Jordan), Mrs. Edmund Luster (Virginia Van Loan), Mrs. D. Neil Harvey (Margaret Cranston), Mrs. Helen Seaman, Mrs. Ruth Burns, Miss Jane Burns, Miss Mildred Crocker, Miss Jeanne Casanova, Miss Vera Burnett, Miss Nellie Pederson, Miss Mary LeMotte, Miss Mary Lou Lohman, Miss Jewell Usher, Miss Margaret Simmonds, Miss Clara Lou Nesbitt, Miss Jettie Crawford and Miss Barbara McCully.

Monday Visit

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Oiler of Tacoma, Wash., passed the Yuletide holidays in Los Angeles visiting with the latter's mother, Mrs. C. C. Shover, and brother, O. V. Shover, of 907 E. 12th avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Shover of 1211 S. Normandie avenue. Many delightful affairs given in their honor by old friends.

GENIUS OF DUNCES

Parents whose children fail in school can take comfort. Dullness in adolescent years may be an indication of genius later on, according to Glen B. Winship, New York novelist.

"Some of the world's most famous men were dunces caps in their youth," said Mr. Winship. "Henry Ward Beecher was the last person in his class from whom anything was expected. James Russell Lowell was reprimanded habitually for carelessness in his studies and was suspended from school several times."

"Napoleon graduated forty-second in his class. Sir Walter Scott's teacher said of him, 'Dunce he is, and dunce he will remain.' Charles Darwin failed consistently in learning languages. Dryden was a confirmed truant. Sir Isaac Newton, father of modern science, ranked next to the bottom in his class. Stonewall Jackson was regarded as an extremely dull youth."

"Backwardness in children is too often overestimated. The number of dunces blossoming into great men may be due to unwise teachers, criticism at home and lack of self-confidence in early years. Many youngsters mature late and for them only the rudiments of school are of any use in early years. Others are of such individual resourcefulness that exacting rules of school are restraining."

HOW SAFETY RAZORS POPULARIZED DENTISTRY

AND NECKTIES By Dr. Pauline Parker

In the old days of the old-fashioned razor, men were shaved at home. They were the quietest of men, and they were the most careful of their appearance. They were the most careful of their appearance. They were the most careful of their appearance.

When the boys found out that the new-fangled shaving would really save them a great deal of trouble, they were the first to try it. They were the first to try it. They were the first to try it.

In many homes, however, joy turned to consternation when the boys found out that the new-fangled shaving would really save them a great deal of trouble. They were the first to try it. They were the first to try it.

So great was the demand for dental service that dental fees began to soar. When folks complained of the high cost of crowns, they were told that it was highly unethical for dentists to discuss prices with patients.

It was at about this critical period that people discovered Dr. Pauline Parker, a dentist who would discuss prices with them. He even preached good dentistry and business methods in operating dental offices.

Up to date more than a million men and women have paid the reasonable fees for dental service at Dr. Pauline Parker's. Economical and eminently sensible ideas are now recognized by thinking dentists everywhere.

Transcribo en seguida algunas cartas en las que se corresponden las pláticas de los lunes.

Yo deseo que las cartas que he tomado de la misma obra:

Gentlemen:

We wish to thank you for your inquiry of the 29th ult., of whose contents we have taken note.

We regret to state that at present we do not manufacture automobiles with commercial bodies, but we can recommend several factories that devote themselves exclusively to making them, and we are sure that they can furnish you with the body you desire.

We take pleasure in enclosing our latest price list.

You will appreciate the approximate cost of the truck by adding the price of the body to the price of the chassis.

The low prices of our machines make it impossible for us to grant any time credit to our customers.

All machines are sold on a cash basis, and we are sure that you will find them to be of great value.

Very truly yours,

We regret to inform you that we do not have a discount to all buyers, but we are sure that you will find them to be of great value.

SEA NEARLY CLAIMS PAIR OF BATHERS

Thousands Go to Beaches and Many Take Dip as Mercury Mounts

While warm weather sent thousands of persons to the beaches yesterday, and many of them into the surf, a man and a woman narrowly escaped drowning when caught under Crystal Pier, Ocean Park, in the high tides that swept all along the beach.

Miss Grace Ransom and Harry Berkey, 304 S. Beverly, were caught in the strong rip tide and carried out to sea. Three men who attempted to rescue them also were carried away by the tide and it was only when life guards went into action that the party was saved.

High tides also were reported at Balboa with the waves climbing over the jetty at times. The sandy stretches at Venice and Santa Monica were dotted in July with the bright splashes of colored umbrellas, hoisted to protect the bather on the beach from midwinter sunburn.

Swimmers venturing into the heated plunges, later appeared outside and took to the ocean. Through swarmed through the amusement parks, and ice-cream parlors and cold pop, outcries of the peanut stands in sales.

Along the grassy spaces of Palisades Park were hundreds of picnicers dotting the green spaces with white table cloths. The beach clubs dining business with many of the members going there from town for dinner and to enjoy the sea breeze.

DR. HARDING TOPS ALL ON HONOR ROLL

Late President's Nephew Brings New Distinction to Los Angeles College

Dr. George Tryon Harding, III, nephew of the late President Harding, has won first place on the honor roll of the National Board of Medical Examiners, according to announcements made yesterday.

Dr. Harding recently completed his medical course at the College of Medical Evangelists in this city, and is now entering at the Grand Hospital, Columbia, O.

This makes the second time within approximately a year that graduates of the College of Medical Evangelists of Los Angeles have carried off first honors on the National Board of Medical Examiners.

Dr. Harding was born in 1897, and is now a resident of Los Angeles. He is the nephew of President Harding, and is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley.

Trial to be Resumed This Morning Before Doran

Picking of Jury Expected to Take Entire Week

Defense Plan to Attack All Charges as Unit Falters

Trial of ten defendants charged with wrecking the Julian Petroleum Corporation by oversteering the company's stock will be resumed today at 10 a.m. before Superior Court Judge Doran.

Although 100 witnesses subpoenaed by the prosecution have been ordered to appear in court this morning, the taking of testimony may not be started before next week.

WEEK TO PICK JURY This was indicated by several attorneys for the defense, as well as prosecution attorneys, who admit that nearly all of this week may be consumed in selecting a jury.

The ten men on trial are: S. C. Lewis, former head of the wrecked company, who is acting as his own attorney; Jacob Berman, alias Jack Bennett, the so-called "smart" attorney; the pool-boon manipulators which precipitated the bankruptcy; I. L. House, banker; R. M. and Charles Reese, former vice-presidents of the bankrupt company; and Co. Julian Petroleum brokers; T. P. Conroy, former secretary to the company; Louis Berman, brother of Jacob Berman; E. H. Campbell, E. H. Rosenberg and William O. Kottman.

STAR OF NEW DRAMATIC COMPANY

She Will Sing in Il Terzo Marito

Fanny Ferrari, Italian singer, will be featured in the forthcoming production of "Il Terzo Marito," by the newly organized Italian Dramatic Company of Los Angeles.

Proceeds from this and the other opera to be offered later will go toward the building and organization of a modern and elaborate Italian theater to be located in the downtown section of the city, the director declares, the plan having the approval of the Italian Consul here.

February show by Mario Carillo and Carlo Scapino, the latter a brother of Fanny Ferrari.

Plans to Cut Running Time to Pasadena Given Out by Railroad Commission

A number of physical improvements which it is expected will decrease the running time between Los Angeles and Pasadena by approximately seven minutes during the evening rush on the Pacific Electric tracks between Aliso street and the point where the line touches Mission Road, are recommended in a report of the Railroad Commission.

The survey will be introduced as evidence when a hearing is resumed next week on the application of the traction company for increased rates.

NEW BAIL FRAUD CHARGES MADE

Further Disclosures Due Before Jury Today

Fake Prison Report Traced to Office of Keys

Witnesses to Corroborate Expose by Payne

Further startling disclosures in the grand jury's investigation of County Auditor Payne's charges that the county has been defrauded out of $5000 by an asserted irregularity in the District Attorney's office are expected today when the jury resumes the inquiry.

The asserted irregularity centers about the dismissal of a case against Louis J. Allen, charged with a felony. Payne asserts the District Attorney's office obtained the dismissal on the grounds that Allen was in the Illinois State prison.

Payne has testified before the jury that the bond of $5000 was exonerated and that he since has evidence that Allen never was in the Illinois prison as the District Attorney's office represented. Thus, Payne says, the county has been defrauded.

Another witness before the grand jury today will be Dr. Pomeroy, chief of the County Health Service, whose department was charged with extravagance and inefficiency in a recent grand jury report. That report, Payne says, was intended to recoup the real issue before the grand jury of asserted bail-bond irregularities in the District Attorney's office.

The Trail of the Sioux

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ON JUNE, 1876, WHILE GEN. TERRY'S COLUMN RESTED ON THE BANK OF THE POWDER RIVER, MAJOR MARCUS A. RENO, WITH FIVE TROOPS OF CUSTER'S SEVENTH CAVALRY, WAS SENT FAR TO THE SOUTH TO SEARCH FOR SIGNS OF THE HOSTILE SNAKE. RENO'S SCOUTS PICKED UP A BROAD INDIAN TRAIL POINTING TOWARD THE SMOKE-SMOKING TRAIL.

JUNE 17TH, RENO, THOUGH HE WAS UNAWARE OF IT, WAS ONLY FORTY MILES FROM DEAD CANYON ON THE ROSEBUD, NEAR WHICH GEN. CROOK WAS FIGHTING WITH CRAZY HORSE. RENO RETURNED TO CAMP AND REPORTED HIS DISCOVERY TO GEN. TERRY.

DERRY ORDERED CUSTER TO FOLLOW THE TRAIL RENO HAD FOUND, AND DRIVE THE HOSTILES NORTHWARD DOWN THE VALLEY OF THE LITTLE BIG HORN, WHERE HE BELIEVED THEM TO BE CAMPED, AND INTO THE CLUTCHES OF GEN. GIBSON, WHO WOULD BE COMING UP THE VALLEY WITH A STRONG FORCE OF INFANTRY.

Water, Water Everywhere, But Hardly a Drop Left to Drink on Schooner Ruby When She is Found by Steamer After Being Wind-Struck for Months

After drifting helplessly about off the west coast of Mexico for nearly two months, the three-masted schooner Ruby was located yesterday 700 miles south of Los Angeles by a Norwegian steamer which rescued the twelve members of the crew from a life-threatening death, according to a wireless message received at Los Angeles Harbor yesterday.

Members of the crew were without provisions and their water supply was almost exhausted when the Norwegian steamer Storstad, en route from San Francisco to Landy End, Eng., came across the wind-struck ship.

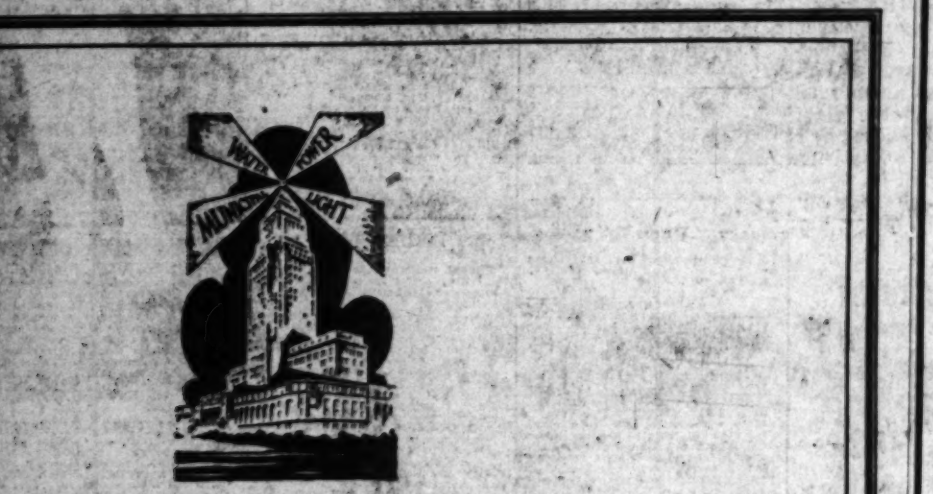

The message from the Storstad said that several members of the crew needed medical attention.

After giving first-aid treatment and providing food and several casks of water, the Storstad left the Ruby to continue on its way to Los Angeles.

The Ruby left Balboa October 23 for Seattle. All hopes for her safety had been abandoned several days ago. The 278-net-ton vessel is under charter to Sterling Steamship Company of Seattle.

The City Council is scheduled to consider this morning the $25,370 assessments for the construction of the La Brea storm drain. The work has been completed and the matter now before the Council is the confirmation of the assessments to pay for the drain.

Farmers of Japan have a lower-rent drive.

The Light that must not fail

WHOEVER dared interfere with the unflinching radiant beams of the Lindbergh Light on the tower of our City Hall would be a menace to every aviator. Utter condemnation would promptly follow.

So also the source of the Lindbergh Light, the Municipal Bureau of Power and Light, is a beacon light of civic safety that must not fail. He who would interfere with its community appointed task of unflinching electric service to the community is a menace to the flight of progress of Los Angeles and should be just as promptly and unsparringly condemned.

When you see the Lindbergh Light remember—Nearly twenty years ago the people of Los Angeles voted overwhelmingly to keep in their own possession all potential power opportunities in connection with the aqueduct.

By equally overwhelming vote they decided to distribute the power to themselves at the lowest possible cost and, as a principle, to devote its priceless resources to the material prosperity and happiness of its people. These principles are irrevocably imbedded in the Charter of the City of Los Angeles.

The incontrovertible evidence is that the Bureau of Power and Light of Los Angeles has fulfilled the expectation of its citizens in a broadly capable way. More than any other single factor it has been responsible for the industrial development of Los Angeles, as well as giving better commercial and domestic service at lower rates than competing cities. The Municipal Bureau of Power and Light is the beacon light of the long established plan of Los Angeles people. There shall be no jeopardizing this factor of prosperity.

HOW TO PLAY

Each picture in the Los Angeles Times $5000 Picturegame is drawn to represent the title of a book. A knowledge of books is not required to play the Picturegame. You can easily select a title for each picture by obtaining a copy of the Official Picturegame Catalogue. All you need to do then is glance through an alphabetical list of titles, and select the one you think best.

Get This Official Catalogue. Contains All Winning Titles!

To insure absolute fairness to all players, The Times has prepared an Official Picturegame Catalogue containing several hundred titles of books. Only titles listed in this catalogue are eligible, and you have only to run through the list each day and pick out the title that fits best. Every winning title is there—and 730 cash prizes await those who play the game best!

The Balloon Buster of Arizona

*The Incredible
Life and Death of
Frank Luke, Jr.,
America's Second Ace*

By
NORMAN S. HALL

ON December 10, 1917, a six-foot, canary-blond student-aviator in Uncle Sam's army wrote from Rockwell (flying) Field, California, these words to his sister:

"I will make myself known or go where most of them do."

Less than a year later, Frank Luke, Jr., who was that aviator, did both.

In a fighting career that was brief as a meteor and brilliant as a comet, he achieved an ever-lasting niche in American history as his country's second ace and the only American war bird awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker, America's first ace, said: "Luke was the greatest fighter who ever went into the air. If he had gone on I would have looked like a third-rater!"

Thus young Luke made good his boast in only 17 days of actual fighting, in which he brought down 14 German captive balloons and 4 German planes. And then, brought down by the Germans, he refused to surrender, fighting with a six-shooter until his final bullet was spent—true

HE was a Broncho Buster in Arizona. He was the foremost Buster of Balloons and Military Regulations in the World War! Awarded the Congressional Medal in death, he would have been recommended for a Court Martial had he lived. The army couldn't tame him—the Germans couldn't conquer him. He died fighting with a six-shooter in his hand—a true Westerner to the last—after the shortest and most spectacular fighting career in the air service of the World War.

westerner to the last. He was only 21 when death closed the book of his colorful career.

Luke specialized in the most hazardous type of air fighting. He was a "balloon buster" and to "bust" captive military balloons, the airman must come close to earth in easy range of land artillery, anti-aircraft and machine guns—as well as the guns in the basket of the balloon. Luke's luck held for 14 balloons—a record never equalled.

Luke was arrogant—and yet humble. He was self-centered as a movie actor—and yet would go hungry so that a pal might eat. He liked to masquerade as a girl, yet he could wade into a tough mining camp and hall and smash belligerent ore handlers into submission with his fists. He could mine copper or ride a cow all day—and then give dancing lessons at night to make extra money. He could shoot through a daisy as fast as that flower is recognizable—but he never fought, except on the battlefield, with anything but his fists.

A genius as a war bird, a devil for luck, an American and a man's man, the life story of this amazing lad who came out of the West finally to "go west" on the battlefield, makes one of the most thrilling epics of the World War and American history. Now, in LIBERTY, the story of Frank Luke, Jr., from birth to death, is told for the first time.

To write this biography, Norman Hall interviewed parents, relatives, boyhood pals, battlefield buddies and commanding officers. The United States War Department gave him free access to its archives and the Germans gave him their side of the story. In all details, it is a complete and authentic record.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. (AP)—Marine units numbering more than 1200 left today for Nicaragua to fight against the rebel Sandino.

Gen. Logan Poland and his 400 men set sail from San Francisco on the cruiser, Raleigh, and the 800 men of the Marine Corps will board the transport ship,
the USS Albatross, at San Francisco, Va., and will sail for the Central American Republic.

Poland, an experienced commander, was in command of the expedition. He was relieved, again, by
Gen. Eland.

The expedition will be the first of its kind in the history of the Marine Corps. It is estimated that the expedition will last about a week.
